PUTNAM'S MONTHLY

A Magazine of Literature, Science & Art

AN ENTIRELY ORIGINAL AMERICAN WORK.

WITH the January number commences the seventh volume of PUTNAM'S MONTHLY Thus constantly increasing circulation of the Magazine and the hearty sympathy with which the efforts of the publishers have been received by the public, stimulate them to unwearied efforts to continue to deserve the success which they have achieved It is the aim of the Magazine to furnish the greatest variety of popular reading, entertainment, to criticise politics and society, from the most manly and generous point of view; to tell the truth about books and men so far as they are properly subjects for public notice; to present them at their best and most accurate sketches of actual personal adventure; to discuss science in all its popular bearings, and in general to make itself the recipient of the best observations upon all contemporary and national interests It shall always be done by the best talent in the country, and honestly, but it cannot always be done without offence PUTNAM'S MONTHLY is not either a story book nor a partisan Journal It has opinions, and principles, It seeks to amuse and instruct but it hopes, also, to be felt as the friend of good morals sound learning, and the more liberal and free discussion

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY—Two numbers of this leading American Magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon us an embarrassment of riches The certain number some e fifteen in each and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over Indeed Putnam has a peculiar attraction for us, and we see in it a reflection of the mind, manners, and intelligence of our transatlantic cousins It carries us into a new country and makes us acquainted with all its characteristics in an easy unaffected manner Politics are not neglected but we do not discuss factions, or even party, and we read under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States—London (Eng.) Weekly Times

TERMS—$3 a year, or 25c a number Subscribers receiving $5 promptly in advance to the Publishers will receive the work for one year, post paid in any part of the United States, within 3000 miles

Clubs of two persons, $5 a year or five persons $10—Postmasters and Clergymen supplied at $2 Household Words and Putnam $5 Household Words or Putnam a Month by with the 5 hundredth, to one address, $3 50 or all three of the Magazines $8 50

News of the Morning.

The doings at the Printers' Festival, in this city, occupy much of our space this morning.—There is nothing of interest from Madison, or Washington. The New York Market shows a firmer tone and advance in prices. See Telegraph head for various items of news.

Fox River Valley Railroad.

There was a good attendance of our business men and other citizens at Young's Hall, last evening, to hear what was to be said in favor of aid from this city towards building the section of the Fox River R. R., from Rochester to this city, a distance of some 25 miles. The meeting was organized by appointing Mr. Wm. A. Prentiss as Chairman, and A. J. Aikens, as Secretary. At the request of the audience, Mr. P. Belden, of Rochester, Racine County, addressed them at some length, in explanation of the prospects, advantages and resources of the road. He was followed by Messrs. Mitchell, Holton, Merrill, Grant and Alton, of this city, and Mr. Smith of Elgin, Illinois, the Engineer of the road, in further discussion and elucidation of the subject.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to report to a future meeting as to the importance of the road to this city, its claims to our help, and what probable amount for that object could be secured.

Messrs. J. H. Tweedy, C. Comstock, W. P. Merrill, C. R. Alton, E. D. Holton, H. Crocker and Alexander Mitchell. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the Committee, and very favorably impressed with the proposed R. R. extension.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON Jan. 17, 1856.

The Chaplain business has been settled to-day in the assembly, as our readers have learned already. Of course it is settled as it always is, by inviting all of the resident clergy to officiate in turn. But it has served to develop the thoughts and ways of thought of many members, and the discussion has probably done no harm. It has shown that quite a number of the old Hunker democracy are very tender on the subject of the rebukes administered to them by so many of the clergy. If the being troubled by itching pains in old sores during convalescence, is, as is said, a sign of improvement and a reason for hope of speedy cure, then we may look for better things by and by at the hands of the self-styled "democracy," since their sore spot is certainly touched, and troublesome.

The newspaper business is also settled, contrary to the late Republican practice, and by a party vote, by ordering five dailies for each member, to be paid for from the Treasury. The remark made by Mr. Wagner—that the people had repudiated the Republican majority of last session which refused so to order the papers—certainly had some force in it; for the people had before them ample evidence that the Republicans last winter saved them a very large amount of money if the people do not care for those things, who shall?

A subject cognate to this, is worthy of remark. One of the service of the last Legislature was the cutting off a very large source of expenditure, in the form of orders to a large amount for Messages and other documents in both our own and foreign languages. Some of our friends, Germans and Norwegian, 'naturally expected that they would be treated with the same "liberty" which had for years so handsomely provided for their countrymen among the "democracy". But no; they were told that the Republican majority, looking at the fact that these documents were for the most part saved up so long after the session that they never reached the people, but were sold for wrapping paper here in Madison,—thought the expenditure unwarranted.

Very well; they acquiesced, and received no dollar of the State Funds. The people know this, too; yet they did not care, and have sent up here a democratic Assembly which proceeds forthwith to order 5000 copies or so in English, 5000 in German, and say 3000 in Norwegian, thus providing for some, at least, of the "democratic" presses in foreign languages.

The question suggests itself whether the people really do care what expenses are incurred at Madison; or whether, in fact, they do not approve of the Expenditure. If they do so approve, there is certainly no good reason why the few Republican presses who stand up for truth, right and justice among our foreign born citizens, doing this the while against abuse and strong though ill-founded prejudice, should not be served by the Republican Senate as the Democratic Assembly serves the presses in their interest. The subject is worth a thought, certainly, and should receive consideration. W. H. W.

P. S.—The Printers doubtless had a good time on Thursday night, and I wish them joy of it, for none better deserve to have a good time. As one of the natural consequences, however of the frolic, I notice the following in my letter to-day:

So, too, Professor Reed, who comes from the Indiana University, while indicating his position as teacher of abstract philosophy from the common charge of uselessness, &c.

The Professor, though tall and straight enough, is no Indian, but from the Indiana University; and he indicated his position, &c. W. H. W.

News from the Pinery.—The Stevens Point Pinery of the 9th inst comes to us printed on writing paper, foolscap size, and containing a variety of local items, from which we select the following:

The readers of the Pinery will perceive, that although out of paper, we still give them a whole sheet! The last week (or fortnight, for that matter) has been the coldest ever known in the State. For the whole time (15 days) the mercury did not rise above zero, and several mornings at daylight, it was 25 deg. below. On the 10th, at one o'clock P. M., it was 18 deg. below zero! To-day the weather has moderated slightly and some quid nunes tell us that the cold weather is past.

Prices of produce continue to rise here. Oats are up to 30 cts. and corn meal almost out of view—nearly to $3,50 per hundred. People are wondering at it; not considering that the truth is, not that produce has really risen, but only that money has fallen, i. e., that a bushel of corn will buy about double the quantity of paper money that it would a year ago; cause why—paper is plenty—not that corn or oats is scarce.

☞ At the annual renting of the seats in the Episcopal Church, in this village, on the 1st inst., much competition was had; More seats being called for than there is in the house. The only remedy is said to be in an enlargement of the church. Will it be done? We think it will.

☞ At the village of Plover, a single individual gave $500, towards establishing an Academy.

Chicago Light Guard.—We learn from the Chicago papers that the Chicago Light Guard, one of the best disciplined Volunteer Companies in the Union, design attending the celebration of Washington's Birthday at Cincinnati, as the guests of the "Rover Guards" of that city The Milwaukee Light Guard have also received a pressing invitation from the "Rover Guards", to participate in the national celebration.

Printers Festival.

The Anniversary of Franklin's birth was made the occasion of a Printers Festival in this city, and the precedent, it may be hoped, for an annual commemoration of the day. A Committee of the Printers of the city made all the arrangements with equal taste and judgment. The programme for the evening included a supper, at 9 o'clock, with the usual sentiments, speeches and music, and a dance afterwards. The Armory of the Light Guard was selected for the Festival, the tables set for the supper filling that large apartment. Shortly after 9 o'clock the Company, which embraced nearly all the Printers of our city and a very welcome delegation of the fair sex, sat down to a bountiful repast provided by Elliot Brothers. An hour was pleasantly occupied in the discussion of the good things served up, after which the Chairman, Rufus King, Esq., announced, in their order, the following Regular Toasts:

1. Our Government.—National, State, and Municipal May we never disgrace them, and may they never disgrace us.

Music—Hail Columbia.

2. The Flag of Our Country.—May the brilliancy of the "Old Thirteen" continue to attract and add to its galaxy of "bright, particular stars," until we can say, in truth, "The whole boundless continent is ours," and nought but illimitable oceans shall bound "The land of the free and the home of the brave."

Music—The Star Spangled Banner.

3. Washington.—In silence.

4. Ben. Franklin.—The common sense Philosopher—the practical Savant—the American Statesman—the type of his profession. May his memory ever be cherished.

Music—A man's a man for a' that

5. The Press.—The terror of despots—the hope of the Million.

Music—Marseillais.

6. The Printing Office.—The School for the Million, whose sticks are more efficient than birch, and whose rules are always respected—the only school where knowledge is taught by steam. Long may it continue to send its graduates to the halls of Congress.

Music—Jordan's a hard road to travel.

7. Prof. Morse.—He who trained the untamed lightning to the newsboy's tread.

Music—The Thunderstorm

8. Milwaukee.—Beautiful by nature, and prosperous by human industry and judicious enterprise. May her car of progress, now above the horizon, rapidly and continually approach the zenith, but never reach it.

Music—Home, Sweet Home

9. Woman.—The last, best token of God's goodness to man. May her fair form ever be locked up in the chaste arms of man, with the silvery quoins of love.

Music—Katy Darling

10. Our Firemen.—The protectors of our homes when they most need protection—Ever ready to "douse the glim," may their real worth be appreciated.

Music—The Fire Alarm.

11. The Army and Navy.—Our pride and boast—united, invincible. A standard bound which in time of need, every American will promptly rally.

Music—"The Red, White and Blue"

At the conclusion of the Regular Toasts, the Chairman read the following letters and accompanying sentiments, which were received with much applause:

Milwaukee, Jan. 17th, 1856.

To the President of the Printers Festival:

Dear Sir.—It was my intention, and I changed my calculations to be present with you this evening on the occasion of celebrating the birth day of Benjamin Franklin. An unexpected engagement since 9 o'clock this evening will deprive me of the anticipated pleasure.

I believe I am among the oldest of the craft in this State, and I assure you I take a deep interest in their success and prosperity. For twenty-seven years it has been my pride and privilege, whatever my immediate occupation might be, to rank myself by trade or profession, a Printer, and if my advice will influence them, it will be my highest pleasure to have my sons hail as Printers by trade when they shall have become men.

Please book me for whatever you may deem my share of the expenses of your entertainment, and accept assurances of my sincere regret that I cannot be with you.

Please accept the following as a sentiment.

In haste, very truly your fellow citizen,
J. A. NOONAN.

The Printers and the Press of Wisconsin.—From the days when the Green Bay Democrat was published and edited by A. G. Ellis, and the Milwaukee Advertiser by Messrs Daniel H. Richards and Col. Crocker, it will compare favorably for skill, enterprize and intelligence with that of any other State or Territory in the Union.

Milwaukee, Jan. 17, 1856.

Chairman of Franklin Festival:—

Worn out by the incessant toils attendant upon the Roommanship of a morning paper for the past two years, I am debarred the privilege of commingling with our noble "craft" in their first celebration of Franklin's birth day, in this city, to-night.

Wishing you all manner of joy on the occasion, I subscribe the following sentiment:

The Printers of Milwaukee.—Bright [illegible] in the frontispiece of our city's history—when fairly rectified and put to press, may their motto be—"Press onward"

A. H. Burdick.

The Chair next called for Volunteer Speeches, or Sentiments, and in obedience to the summons of the company, the ball was opened by Mr. Vaughan, of the Free Democrat, in a neat and eloquent eulogy upon the character of Franklin and a well conceived tribute to the power and importance of the Public Press. Mr. Vaughan offered, in conclusion, the following toast to the Ladies, which was received with all the honors.

The Ladies.—They form the types of loveliness, and so harmonious-ly justified, as to leave a clear impression, and lock-up the affections.

Mr. J. S. Vinzent next responded, for the Printers, to the toast in memory of Franklin, speaking in brief and appropriate terms of the practical virtues and beneficial example of this Statesman, Philosopher and Patriot, and concluding with the following sentiment:

The Art Preservative of all Arts.—Whose voice hath burst the silence, and whose light is flung upon the darkness—flashing jewels upon a robe of black, and bringing harmony out of Chaos.

Mr. Withrow, of the Janesville Free Press, was next introduced to the audience, as a guest, and eloquently pleaded in favor of doing honor to the memory of John Milton on an occasion like the present. Milton, he said, was best known and perhaps only known to the great mass of American readers, as the author of Paradise Lost; but Printers, at least, should remember and honor him for his masterly speech before the British Parliament in favor of an unlicensed and free Press.—Mr. Withrow proceeded with force and effect to speak of the power of a Free Press, and its value to the public, so long as it remained unshackled and studied to lead and instruct, rather than to follow and to flatter public opinion.

Mr. Hicks, of the American, was called out and made some excellent remarks in favor of the "craft" printers, concluding by offering the following toasts from W. F. Cramer.

Our Profession.—When rightly pursued, renders its followers intelligent, patriotic, and generous.

The Printers craft and his love of Country.—A natural and a noble union.

Mr. Hicks also proposed the following sentiment for himself

The Composing Rule—
When tyranny shall be o'er come
And from its throne be hurled,
The ruler, then, it seems to me,
A steel composing rule will be,
Best ruler of the world.

The Firemen of Milwaukee having been remembered in the regular toasts, the Ex-Chief, Mr. John S. Fillmore, was called on to respond. He declined making a speech, and knowing, as he said, what a hard-working set of men Printers were and how much they deserved and needed an occasional Holiday, he begged leave, in lieu of speech, or sentiment, to submit the following resolution:

Resolved.—That the 17th of January be hereafter set apart and kept by the Printers of Wisconsin as one of the National Holidays.

The proposition was received with tumultuous applause, and being put by the Chair was carried by acclamation So let it be recorded! The Chairman being next called upon to say something, urged the lateness of the hour and the impatience of the Ladies for an adjournment to the dance as a sufficient excuse for not trespassing at length upon their patience. He took occasion, however, to express his grateful acknowledgement to the Printers of Milwaukee for the compliment they had paid him, in inviting him to preside at this, their First Festival, and his sincere gratification that they had at length found a fitting occasion, when forgetting all party differences, all business jealousies, and all other sources, or causes of difference between them, they could meet and mingle together, as acknowledging a common tie, bound by a common interest, and enjoying a common holiday. After one or two remarks as to the duties and responsibilities of the Press and its right and title to the public confidence and support, while it continued faithful to its trust and worthy of its high calling, he closed by giving the following sentiment:

The Press—Only to be respected and sustained so long as it shall boldly and impartially speak the Truth, defend the Right and denounce the Wrong.

A number of Volunteer sentiments followed, of which we give all that have reached our hands.

Volunteer Toasts.

By T. C Meservey:

The Type.—The soldier of civilization, whose shooters stick is more potent than a revolver, and whose balls cause the light of joy and happiness—not the darkness of sorrow and despair.

By E. C. Ross:—The old Ramage Printing Machine.—The Bridge of Light Connecting the 18th and 19th Centuries.—May its disabled and now useless frame, like the battered ribs of Old Ironsides," be ever hallowed in the recollection of a grateful people, as a memento of a glorious epoch.

By L. C. Sackett:

Printers.—May ample time be given us all to correct and revise the errors marked on life's margin, so that a clean proof may be presented for the inspection of the Great Reader.

By Mr. Meservey:

The Printers Devil—The foundation for a man whose inky face only renders an impression less difficult.

By H. A. Starr:

The Printer—May they never be locked up for want of a quoin (coin.)

By N. L. Burdick:

The Millennium of the Press—When the Sentinel shall sing "The Forty;" the American kiss the "Fortuner;" the Free Democrat sit down with kidnappers, and the Wisconsin shake hands with Noonan.

By G. A. Trusler:

The Printers Devil—Always full of mischief, but harmless in his right place. (Pouring a dose of Liquor into an old shoe.) "Hell."

By Lewis Bleyle:

Our Festival—The fat test take of the season.

By Wm. Merrit:

Ye Franklin—May his memory ever be fresh as the evergreen in the minds of the American people: may his life's history be the model of Young America, and Printers in particular.

By Lewis Shur:

Our Stars and Stripes—May they never be knocked into pi so long as we are able to handle the shooting stick.

By E. G. Ross:

The Modern Steam Printing Machine—May its thundering tones ever reverberate, and its ponderous cylinder continue to roll, until error and falsehood shall be crushed beneath its tireless tread, and revolutions and national epochs shall be as mile-stones in its progress in the spread of intellectual life and light.

By C. C. Meservey:

The Newspaper and the Newsboy—The Jupiter and the Mercury of Christendom.

By E. C. Sackett:

Women—Too prone to overlook errors to be a good reader, but eminently fitted for a corrector. May she choose a noble heir for a bearer on life's rugs, and set up at the baptismal font many little activities headed with small caps.

By Harry Bucklin:

The Printer's favorite—The gal who always makes an impression—is fond of setting up, and never refuses to embrace.

By H. K. W. Ayers:

The Printer—To the tyrant, a thinner; to the indolent an item of stumbling and a stone of offence; but to him who will advocate the right of free speech, the love of liberty and faith in God, in them will find a foundation broad and strong enough to sustain the fabric of a glorious Republic, whose limits the world shall only circumscribe.

By C. C. Meservey:

A Free Press—The sure and sufficient safeguard of a Nation's liberties.

By H. L. Williams:

The Stick and Rule—Small, but significant emblems of the power that sways the minds of the million.

By H. A. Starr:

The Printers of Milwaukee—May virtue ever direct their actions with respect to themselves, justice to those with whom they deal, mercy, love and charity to all man'kind.

By Chas. Meigs, Jr.:

Our City Press—

Educator of the American and Free Democrat, the patriot's Sentinel, and the people's Friend, a Journal of the News, and devoted to the interests of Wisconsin. May it receive a hearty support from the Bagdars.

By Ferd. Sucur.

The News Boy.—May his leading Star ever guide him onward through the trouble of our great Metropolis, and may his course be ever a bright one.

By C. C. Meservey:

Our Common Schools—Institutions, such as America only can boast of—fitting auxiliaries of the Press. May they enjoy the patronage and confidence of the American public.

By Lorenzo Crounse:

Benjamin Franklin.—The Printer, Patriot, and Philosopher—May the remembrance of his many noble deeds and virtues, of his invaluable services to the cause of American Liberty, and of his sympathy and benevolence for the oppressed and down-trodden, ever occupy a sacred spot in the memory of all Americans.

Our Guests.—Let none depart without taking a good impression with them.

The hour having now arrived when the Ladies had been promised their dance, the Chairman declared the Supper adjourned sine die. The tables and their contents were forthwith removed from the Hall, the music started and the dances called. Obedient to the signal all hands took the floor, and under the generalship of Messrs. Fillmore and Strain, the Floor managers, kept the Ball in active motion till an hour or two after midnight, when the programme being danced out, and the party not yet tired, they adjourned to Young's Hall and finished the evening at Number One's Ball.

Thus ended the first Printer's Festival in Milwaukee It was a joyous occasion and to be held in enduring and grateful remembrance, as setting the precedent, we hope, of an annual gathering of the Craft and a fitting commemoration of Franklin's Birthday, as well as canonizing and establishing the day as a Holiday for Printers in this city and State and elsewhere throughout the Union.

Doings of the Legislature.

Madison, Jan. 18th.

Senate proceeded to ballot for President, pro tem.

1st ballot; Taylor 11, Sholes 12, Harvey 1, Dunn 1. No election.

Mr. Mills moved to lay the business on the table till to-morrow morning. Lost

2nd ballot, Taylor 12, Sholes 10, Harvey 1, Dunn 2. No election,

Mr. Sholes said that the vote for him was fattering and unexpected; he had no desire for the office, and hoped that the votes might be cast for some one else. Mr. Worthington moved to postpone the special order till to-morrow, lost.

3d ballot; Taylor 12, Dunn 11, Barber 1, Harvey 1. No election again, Mr. Taylor's votes all Republicans. Mr. Dunn's all democrats, Mr. Dunn voting for Barber, and Mr. Taylor for Harvey.

Mr. Taylor expressed his thanks for the unexpected compliment paid to him. He did not think himself as well qualified for the place as other Senators. He hoped that some other arrangement might be made. He did not think any but Republicans would be likely to vote for himself, while it was possible that there might be those for whom some democrats might vote. He could never have the effrontery to vote for himself, and therefore did not look for an election while he was a candidate. He moved to postpone the special order till to-morrow morning. Carried 13 to 12, a party vote.

Mr. Sutherland introduced a resolution concerning a Revision of the Statutes, also ordering 1000 copies of four Reports in Norwegian. The resolution ordering 3000 copies of the Message was referred to Committee on Printing (Sholes, Kelsey, and Clement.) Resolution to examine affairs of Deaf & Dumb Inst adopted. Bills passed, increasing the number of Directors in Commercial Ins. Co., of Mil., annexing Columbia Co. to IXth Circuit, extending time for taxes in Clark Co; charter of Oconomowoc Seminary; appropriating $1500 for postage; providing for the binding of the Senate Copy of State of the Union accounts.

Senate went into committee on the Boston Message. On a motion to refer the part of the Message relating to Finance Coin (Rose, Taylor and Sholes) Messrs. Harvey and Taylor took occasion to comment in decidedly indignant terms on the false statements made by the writer of that document in relation to the last Legislature in levying the tax. Mr. Harvey showed that the democratic committee of last year actually was ready, on the Treasurer's representation, to report for a $400,000 tax, as absolutely necessary.

Mr. Taylor took up the financial statement of the Message, and criticised its figures, ridiculing the idea of there being a surplus in the Treasury now or 1st Jan. next. He showed that out of the tax of this year, a very large amount is due and must be paid on old debts, and vindicated the necessity of the large state tax.

The Message got a general rubbing down from these Senators.

Mr. Dunn advocated a reference of the portion of the Message. He thought it was not fair to attack it for a long time, and then refuse to refer it. The motion to refer was carried in Committee by one vote. Sundry other references were made, among them that of the Lunatic Asylum business to Messrs Smith, Gill & Adams. In Senate the reference of the finance matter was made by 17 to 3. The Lunatic Asylum reference was also confirmed, that part relating to famines and bigots to Com. on Militia; that relating to liquor law to a select committee, &c. &c.

The doings in Assembly will have mostly reached you by telegraph. It will be seen that that body made calls upon Messrs. Schoefler & Wendt, Germans, and R. Stangeland, Norwegian, for a large number of documents. If the constitution does not, in fact, stand in the way of such an order, let us by all means have orders in Senate on the Republican presses: If the wolf must howl, what, as the sage of Mukwonago says, "let the wolf howl"!

W. H. W.

☞ Note.—It will be remembered that one of the objections made by the Republicans to the ordering of documents was that all public matter be ordered of the State Printer. I find quite overlooked, in my letter of yesterday, the fact. The Democrats always oppose that view of the question, but nevertheless orders from the Senate would go to Republican presses, then constitutional scruples sometimes arise and it would do your heart good to see them now. A blessed Democrat is the constitutional exponent!

Probable Murder and Attempted Suicide.—The Fond du Lac Herald of the 17th inst., contains the following sad story, furnished by a correspondent who dates his letter Springvale, January 16th:

About two weeks ago a fight occurred at a Rummery near Coles Corners, in Springvale, between a man named Harmer and his son

In this fight, Mrs. Harmer received injuries, and died the next morning. The attending physician and others suspected at the time that there had been foul play. The appearance of Mr Harmer since has increased this suspection. On Saturday last, Mr. Harmer attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat He cut deep enough to have caused immediate death, but not understanding Anatomy, the attempt was not successful. Mr. Harmer is still at large, and no steps have been taken for his apprehension, or for an inquest upon the body of the woman. The impression is strong and general in the community, and among those knowing the circumstances, that this death is the result of violence, and that the attempt to commit suicide is the result of remorse of conscience or fear of apprehension.

Real Estate Sale.—The farm of Albert Ogden, contiguous to the plat of this village west, lying on the Delavan road, consisting of one hundred and seventy acres, was sold this week to Dr. Davenport, of Delavan, at Fifty Dollars an acre—$8,500. Only a small portion of the farm is improved, with a small dwelling and barn on it. —Walworth Co Independent.

WISCONSIN ANNUAL REGISTER.

WE have just put into the hands of our compositors the copy of a work which should be in the hands of every citizen of Wisconsin, and should be largely circulated abroad. The Wisconsin Annual Register will contain from 50 to 100 pages, printed in a neat, though cheap pamphlet form, and will contain, among other interesting items, the following:

Almanac for 1856.

Description of Wisconsin—its Boundaries, Surface, Products, Commerce, Manufactures, Climate, &c

The Counties—their boundaries, dates of organization, county seats, &c.

Lists of State officers from the beginning. Annals of the Legislature, giving complete lists of members, County Officers for each County.

The Judiciary—the Judges, Districts. Election of Judges Terms of Courts, &c.

Vote for President in 1848 and 1852

Votes cast for Governor, by counties, from the first.

Commercial tables.

Aggregate valuation of property by counties from the beginning, including 1855

List of Presidents and Vice Presidents, and population of the United States in 1850.

Census of Wisconsin from 1836 to 1855, comparative table for 1850 and 1855.

Congressional Elections, by counties and much other valuable statistical information.

The matter for the work is prepared by John W. Hunt, Esq., Asst. Secretary of State, author of the Gazetteer of Wisconsin, &c., and may be relied upon as accurate. Liberal arrangements will be made with booksellers and agents for the sale of the work. Address

Caution to Western Merchants.

Learning from some of the respectable merchants in Chicago, that my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is extensively counterfeited by a number of Liquor makers in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, and finding that the pirates dare imply colorable imitations of their portraits as deceptions under the name which belongs to my article, I think it necessary to caution the community against these vendors of poison in disguise.

I introduced the Schiedam Aromatic Schnaps for the purpose of supplying the medical faculty, so that with its community with a pure medicinal spirit, which might be prescribed with confidence, in all cases where stimulants were required, without producing the fearful consequences which invariably result from using adulterated liquor. In order to render assurance doubly sure, I had the article analyzed by physicians of world wide celebrity, and submitted it to the experiment of test to thousands of distinguished medical practitioners. The responses from these sources were of the most unequivocal and satisfactory character It is now before the public, surrounded with these guarantees, and bearing those unimpeachable endorsements, and call upon the community to protect themselves and me their own health and my reputation, by frowning down and repudiating the piratical speculators who are selling their foul commodities under cover of my trade mark. No article had ever been imported from Holland into this market, under the name of Schnapps, previous to the appearance of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, in this city.

The first importation being made into the city in the year 1848, which can be seen by the Custom House Books I depositied my label as a trade mark in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, in the year 1851 and have the certificate in my possession of this date. The great demand which has thus been created for the genuine article, has set the whole hive of counterfeiters in motion, and the duty I owe to my customers and friends and the public, compels me to put them on their guard against imposition.

The genuine is put up in quart and pint bottles, with my name on bottle, cork and label, for sale by all the respectable druggists and grocers in the United States.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,
18, 20 and 22 Beaver street, New York.

Among the compliments for which the Schnapps has been declared a specific by the eminent physicians who have corresponded with the proprietor, are dropsy, dropsy a debility consequent upon long continued sickness and old age, epilepsy, asthma, gravel, colic, affections of the kidney and all chronic diseases of the genito-minary apparatus.—For these and many other disorders, it is now prescribed with great success, by more than three thousand medical practitioners in various parts of the United States.

Police Court; Jan. 19th.

Thomas Costello, disorderly discharged for want of prosecution, Abby Fitzgerald, do, do, Abel Handley, John H Littell, and Christopher Roscher were each fined $2 00 for fast driving on Spring Street Bridge

The case of the State vs John Gallagher for assault and battery upon John Miller, was continued to February 15th at 10 A M

Thomas Pillock was examined on a charge of stealing a quantity of wearing apparel, books, &c, from the Milwaukee House, on the 23d of Dec, and held for trial, the bail was fixed at $8,00

A NOVEL LAW SUIT—A LAWYER VS A LAWYER.—A suit was commenced against E. Foote by the present City Attorney before Justice Smith, on Wednesday, to replevin a Gold Watch and Chain, valued at about $75 now in the possession of Mr Foote and claimed as the property of a man named Carey

The cause of this suit is as curious as it is novel A few days since a man named Bloch was arrested, examined and committed for trial on a charge of stealing from Mack & Bros a piece of silk, and two silk shawls While Bloch was in durance, he employed Mr Foote to defend him and gave an order on the Chief of Police in writing to deliver to Mr Foote, his Gold Watch and Chain, and a small sum of money that had been taken from him when searched The articles were delivered to the counsel, who receipted them on the back of the order

This watch had previously been obtained by Bloch in trade, the articles traded being the silk shawls &c alleged to have been stolen from Mack & Bros, Bloch and Carey being the parties who traded Carey now seeks to obtain his watch, alleging that the articles that he received in exchange for it from Bloch were stolen The counsel for Carey is General Paine, so that the issue is between the two lawyers The watch will have to be sold if obtained by Carey, to obtain means to pay his counsel—so we are informed

Query. Can the watch be interfered with until the defendant is convicted of stealing the property? For until that fact is proved, where is the evidence that Bloch had not the right to trade the silk, &c for the watch? Or, can a Justice of the Peace determine the title to personal property which is at the time the subject of a charge of larceny in a higher court?

We shall watch this case and report it as we believe it is the first of the kind that has occurred in the state and involves matters of much interest to the public and the ends of justice

NUMBER ONE'S BALL — The Annual Ball of Engine Co No 1, at Young's Hall, on Thursday evening was one of the most elegant and successful entertainments we have ever attended in this City The Hall was tastefully and appropriately decorated, the Music by Hass of the most inspiriting character, and the Supper by HENSCHEID & SCHMITT, excellent and abundant A number of invited guests were present from Racine and Janesville, and many of our military including a large delegation of the Light Guard, attended in full uniform The Hall was crowded from an early hour of the evening till nearly daylight by as happy looking a company as we ever saw congregated there The Festival, was, in all respects a success and most creditable to Number One

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of Science for it will restore, even in youth, grey hair to its original color over the head of the bald will almost instantly cause, even at one age of life, nervousness or pain and disease to disappear, make the hair soft glossy and wavy It will preserve the color perfectly and it will stop falling, and cause a new growth to start where there is baldness, if there is even the least spark of life left in the roots, and will restore it to a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without the color of the hair being changed in the least, and will not stain the skin, but will leave it white and clear as before Also Wood's Hair Restorative and Invigorator is a most powerful and speedy remedy for the cure of Dandruff and will, one month's proper use thereof, restore any head that is not entirely destroyed by disease, to a full growth of hair, and will prevent the hair from falling out, and will cause it to grow upon any part of the head where the skin is not entirely destroyed by disease, and will restore the hair to its natural color, and I have no doubt permanently so

CAZENOVIA, Ill, June 29, 1855

I have used Prof Wood's Hair Restorative and have admitted its wonderful effect My hair is coming as black, and as luxuriantly grey but by the use of his Restorative it has assumed its natural color, and I have no doubt permanently so SIDNEY BRIGGS,

Ex Senator United States

CINCINNATI, June 10 1855

Prof Wood Dear Sir—As you are about to surrender your recently discovered Hair Restorative to the public, I will say a few words in favor of its virtues I have for several years been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and think I found yours vastly superior to any other I know It entirely cleans the head from Dandruff and will, one month's proper use thereof, restore any head that is not entirely destroyed by disease to a full growth of hair, and will prevent the hair from falling out, and will cause it to grow upon any part of the head where the skin is not entirely destroyed by disease, and will restore the hair to its natural color, and I have no doubt permanently so

Yours, &c DANIEL MURPHY

St Louis, March 1, 1854

Prof Wood —My private engagements will not admit of my being present at the Hall to-night, and continue to do so until I become quite bald I tried all the popular medicines of the day but to no effect At last I was induced to try your preparation, and am happy to say it is doing wonders I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted

A C WILLIAMSON

193 Second Street

St Louis June 9th, 1853

Prof Wood —As you are about to prepare and send your Restorative to Europe, I will say a few words in favor of it I was bald about two years ago, and after using two bottles of your Restorative, my hair commenced to grow, and is now as thick as it ever was, and is restored to its natural color, and I have not had a dandruff appeared from my head since I have used it I will say to my friends that they will please call and examine it, and I have no doubt will be disagreeable in the recommendation of it, as I am satisfied from what I told not long ago that it gives the appearance of having been never effected I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair I am, sir, yours, &c

LIFE AND DEATH.

THE

Mysteries of Disease Laid Open to the People.

Health is the Principle of Life—Diseases the Presence of Death.

The R R R. Remedies possess the great power to secure to the human system health and long life, and free the human family from pains, aches, and all bodily infirmities

THE ART OF PRESERVING HEALTH AND THE METHOD OF CURING DISEASE BY THE R R R'S

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IS TO BE USED in all cases where there is pain The moment it is applied externally or taken internally, it will allay the most torturing acute pains, cramps, spasms, sour stomach &c, quicker than Morphine or Opium Nervousness or any other anodyne or remedy that has ever been used by medical men

It is safer than these dangerous remedies the public will bear in mind that Chloroform, Morphine Opium, &c, only still the pain by stupifying the senses so that the perceptive faculties lose the power of feeling and thus after the influence of the narcotics have passed off from the system—the pain again breaks forth with its terrific pangs, with renewed violence

Radway's Ready Relief stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease in no occasions it advises new life into the weak and diseased parts It both excites nerves and establishes in the system a reaction of health and strength, in the place of pain—weakness and disease

In a word, Radway, Radway's Ready Relief applied to the surface of the body, will cure there is any inflammation or congestion, it will break up and scatter the congested blood and cause its circulation and in a few minutes the most excruciating pains are removed The same is to be said of Sciatica, Lumbago Gout, and Rheumatism in their most violent forms for in these an application of Radways Ready Relief will restore the patient ease and comfort

Crippled with Rheumatism, Arm and Leg paralyzed—No Legs—Cured by two days—Timely use of R R R—A wonderful cure, I assure

EVARTS' PATENT SHINGLE MILL

EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SHORTNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill Responsibility is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fiber of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives the greatest economy, and the flexibility of the shingle width-wise relieves the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The Mill is now made with this mill off in the market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingle.

The Machine is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for pecuniary policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against Forcible Inequity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on the Southern, though, he may never read anything but his bills of sale and home-papers, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, unfortunately this publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-burying City like New York. The NEWARK MERCURY once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, gripping, screwing, starvation employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done tempting injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the amelioration of human woes, experience those of the careless and down-trodden, have ever found a ready and hospitable welcome, while it has ardently advocated, and will persistently combat, every attempt to perpetuate and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Religion or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and unsparing, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by especial qualifications and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pursuits devoted; the daily viewment of reading matter open to more than one-half the principal Capitals of the world of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the fresh and most absorbing discussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication, whose most conspicuous champion throughout the Henry Clay, it HENRY CLAY—indeed, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of peace with All which will become the children of Wisdy, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper intolerableness cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its Vitality was preserved. When in 1850—2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the late Presidential campaign, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery feeling to be trampled into the dust, even under a conservative Chief, on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rule and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the appalling corruption of all the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whiggism, only confirmed our unbending anticipations. With no slekly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitable, we again, with hope and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, kindled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—at the re-perfect and utter vindication of their claims—has summoned such collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave States, is destined to sweep away the fundamental of old party fonds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and curse of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely upheld it. To the success of this effort, the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be earnestly devoted; while the PERMANENCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion.

Combining in its daily folio sheets the news of the day and with scarcely a shadow of patronage, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three editions), Semi-Weekly and Weekly, and its columns, each containing pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregate:

Daily Issues (evening and morning)	20,500 copies.
Semi-Weekly	14,175 "
Weekly	184,000 "
California edition	9,000 "
Total	187,425 copies.

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of such size ever circulated. And while its extreme cheapness renders it an unprofitable publication, it has secured peculiarly advantageous to us has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list. It would be absurdity not to perceive in this unexpected patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS.

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. The Weekly we send, to such only as order it, for the separation of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes, the account is closed. The Semi-Weekly we send only with the money paid to say when the paper cannot trust him to mail or otherwise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a second bill is often provoked by it. We therefore entreat every one who desires a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY THREE CENTS per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY, $3: two copies for $5; five for $11,25
WEEKLY, $2; three copies for $5; five copies for $8; ten copies for $15; twenty copies, or over, to address of each subscriber, $1,50 each.

Additional copies at all times we made to made to a club at the price paid by those already in it.
